

City, school election this fall in Brown Co

(KNZA)--City and school positions will be up for election this November in Brown County.

Four positions each are open on the Hiawatha and South Brown County boards of education.

On the USD 415 Board of Education they include position 1, currently held by Jeff Brockhoff; position 2, currently held by Tom Simmer; position 3, currently held by Ian Schuetz; and position 7, currently held by Amy Kopp.

On the USD 430 Board of Education they include position 1, currently held by Richard Lovelady; position 2, currently held by Jason Selland; position 3, currently held by Laurence Berger; and position 7, currently held by Jason Smith.

No positions are up for election this fall on the Hiawatha City Commission, but there are three open positions on the Horton City Commission. They include mayor, currently held by Bryan Stirton; Commissioner of Parks and Recreation, currently held by Bobby Bacon; and Commissioner of Police, currently held by Rex West.

Positions are also up for election in all third class cities in Brown County.

Candidates have until noon, June 3rd to file at the Brown County Clerk's Office.

If a primary election is necessary, it will be held August 6. The general election is November 5.

Many Signals Communications