

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=66971>

Boldridge trial continued to summer

(KAIR)--The trial for an Atchison man accused of shooting at a police officer last year has been continued.

Bryan Boldridge was originally scheduled to face a jury of his peers in Atchison County District Court beginning Tuesday.

Atchison County Attorney Sherri Becker told MSC News the decision for the continuance came Friday during a hearing.

At its conclusion, the Court granted the request for the continuance made by Boldridge, with his trial now set for July 23-25.

44-year-old Boldridge is charged with 2nd degree attempted murder.

He remains in the Atchison County Jail, held on a bond of $150,000.

According to the Kansas Bureau of Investigation, an officer was called October 31, 2018 to an Atchison residence at North 4th and L Streets to assist a utility company with a theft of service issue.

The investigation alleges that during the late morning response, Boldridge suffered injuries when the officer returned fire after Boldridge began shooting.

The officer was not hurt.

Many Signals Communications