

Disaster Recovery Centers opening in Falls City and Peru
(KLZA)-- Both the Nebraska Emergency Management Agency and Federal Emergency Management Agency will open Disaster Recovery Centers for a limited time in Richardson and Nemaha counties in Nebraska.

The center locations will be at Prichard Auditorium in Falls City at 312 West 17th Street and at the Campus Services Building at Peru State College in Peru, located at 600 Hoyt Street.

The Falls City Disaster Recovery Center will be open Friday and Saturday, April 19 and 20 and then Monday through Wednesday, April 22, 23 and 24.

In Peru, the Disaster Recover Center will be open Friday, April 12 through Tuesday, April 16th.

The centers will be open from 9 a.m.- 6 p.m. on the days they are open.

Those needing assistance can visit any open center.

Recovery specialists from FEMA and the U.S. Small Business Administration will provide information on available services, explain assistance programs and help survivors complete or check the status of their applications.

Nebraska homeowners, renters and business owners in Nemaha and Richardson counties may apply for assistance for uninsured and underinsured damage and losses resulting from severe winter storms, straight-line winds and flooding.

You can register with FEMA online at www.DisasterAssistance.gov or call FEMA's toll-free registration line at 800-621-3362.

Applicants should have their social security number, address of the damaged primary residence, a description of the damage; information about insurance coverage; a current contact telephone number; an address where they can receive mail and account information for direct deposit of funds.
