

Horton man enters plea in assault case

(KNZA)--A Horton man, accused of threatening his father with a knife during an altercation in February, has entered into a plea agreement.

21-year-old Cyrus Conklin pleaded no contest Wednesday in Brown County District Court to a felony charge of interference with law enforcement along with a misdemeanor count of criminal damage to property.

In exchange for the plea, charges of aggravated assault and domestic battery were dismissed.

Sentencing was set for the morning of April 22.

Conklin entered the plea after waiving his preliminary hearing.

He was arrested February 3rd following the alleged incident. His father was not hurt.

Conklin remains in the Brown County Jail, held on a $5,000 bond.
