Kansas Farm Service Agency is hiring

The Kansas Farm Service Agency (FSA) is seeking qualified candidates for several employment opportunities at county office locations across Kansas. Kansas FSA is an exciting and rewarding place to start, build and/or continue your professional career. Be a part of our team and support the well-being of Kansas agriculture by applying for a position today.

Applicants are currently being sought for full-time, permanent County Program Technicians in several offices. County Program Technicians are responsible for carrying out office activities and functions pertaining to the technical assistance and program support related to FSA farm and farm loan programs. Basic requirements include general office clerical work, record keeping, computer skills, organizational skills and good public relations skills.

The County Program Technician position offers benefits such as health insurance, 401(k) plan, paid holidays, vacation and sick leave and flexible work schedules.

The position vacancy announcements are posted on the USAJOBS website at www.usajobs.gov through which most federal employment applications must be submitted. Current Kansas County FSA vacancies open and ready to accept applications include the following (click on the link to submit your application):
