

Tuesday burial set for local teacher

(KAIR)--The local area school teacher, killed last week in a two vehicle crash north of Valley Falls, will be laid to rest Tuesday morning.

According to the obituary for Hannah Lager, a wake service for the 24-year-old Minnesota native was held Saturday at Saint Benedict's Abbey Church, in Atchison.

A second wake service was held Monday in Blooming Prairie, Minnesota.

The obituary from Atchison's Arensberg-Pruett Funeral Home says a funeral mass is planned Tuesday morning, followed by interment, in Minnesota.

A 2017 graduate of Atchison's Benedictine College, Lager taught high school Spanish at Valley Falls and Jefferson County North.

She and her husband, Austin, married in June of last year, and made their home in Atchison.

They were expecting their first child.

A Kansas Highway Patrol report states Lager died April 24 when her car collided with a semi on K-4 Highway in Jefferson County.

Many Signals Communications