

Robinson man facing child sex charges

(KNZA)--An August 21 preliminary hearing is now been set for a Robinson man facing multiple child sex charges.

Brown County Attorney Kevin Hill says the hearing for 42-year-old Kirt Allen Linck was continued Wednesday at the request of his attorney.

A criminal complaint was filed May 29 charging Linck with three counts of aggravated indecent liberties with a child.

Hill said the case was filed following an investigation by the Horton Police Department.

He said the alleged victims are two children, both born in 2015.

Linck also faces a charge of criminal threat in a separate case investigated by Horton Police.

He remains free on a $50,000 bond.
