

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=67715>

DHS takes custody of Brown Co suspect

(KNZA)--A Brown County traffic stop leads to the arrest of a man who had previously been deported by the Department of Homeland Security.

That's according to a release issued by Brown County Sheriff John Merchant.

According to the release, Aureliano Galvan, of North Carolina, was stopped for speeding on U.S. Highway 73, around 1:00 Sunday morning.

The 43-year-old was arrested for driving while license canceled, suspended, or revoked and no proof of insurance.

Once Galvan was transported to the Brown County Jail, a records check showed that he had been previously deported.

A warrant and detainer has been issued by DHS, and Galvan is being released to their custody.

Many Signals Communications