Rollover wreck causes injuries

(KAIR)--An early morning, weekend rollover crash caused injuries, but the driver was not transported for hospital treatment.

That word is delivered in a report from Atchison County Sheriff Jack Laurie, who said the wreck happened on 286th Road, near Greely Road, in rural Atchison County around 2:45 Sunday morning.

The driver, 57-year-old Dennis Ray Lowe, of Atchison, was treated at the scene by Atchison County EMS but refused further medical treatment, according to the report.

He was issued a notice to appear in court for texting while driving.
