

Monday wreck injures one

(KAIR)--One person was transported for hospital treatment following a late morning, Atchison County two vehicle crash Monday.

According to Atchison County Sheriff Jack Laurie, it happened at 2944 Sherman Road, just north of 238th Road, shortly before 10:00.

Laurie, in a release, said the wreck occurred when 64-year-old Sharon Mcquinty, of St. Joseph, Missouri, was pulling out of a driveway. As she did so, her Kia Optima was struck by a Toyota Tundra, driven by 54-year-old Atchison resident Dale Weber.

Mcquinty was transported to the Atchison Hospital by Atchison County EMS for the treatment of what Laurie called non-life threatening injuries.

Weber, and his passenger, 51-year-old Cheryl Weber, were not hurt.
