

Filings for Richardson County elections

(KLZA)-- With the filing deadline approaching for incumbents in Nebraska, several candidates have recently filed to seek local positions.

Larry Stauffer of Humboldt has filed for the Ward I Council position up for election in Humboldt. Stauffer is completing a term following his appointment to the Council.

Joshua Nincehelter has filed for a seat on the Village Board of Dawson. Nincehelter is not an incumbent.

Jim Gerweck has filed for reelection to the District 10 seat on the Nemaha Natural Resources Board of Directors.

All of the positions are for a 4-year period and are non-partisan elections.

Filing for a six year term to the Airport Authority if Falls City was David Mullins.

The deadline for incumbents to file for reelection, or election to another office is February 18. The n on-incumbent filing deadline is March 2nd.

Many Signals Communications