Local child sex suspect waives hearing

(KNZA)--A Robinson man facing multiple child sex charges has waived his preliminary hearing.

Kirt Linck was bound over to Brown County District Court Wednesday on three counts of aggravated indecent liberties with a child.

Arraignment was scheduled for April 13.

A criminal complaint was filed against Linck in May of last year following an investigation by the Horton Police Department.

Brown County Attorney Kevin Hill said the alleged victims are two children, born in 2015.

Linck was recently found competent to stand trial.
