Jackson Heights 7th grader wins spelling bee

(KNZA)--A Jackson Heights 7th grader captured the Jackson County Spelling Bee Saturday.

Dawson Cochren took first place by correctly spelling the words "appetite" and "jumbo." She is the daughter of Lucas and Gera Cochren, of Whiting.

Taking second place was Ethan Cundell, a 7th grader at Holton Middle School.

Cochren will now advance to the state spelling bee to held March 21 at Newman University in Wichita.

The top spellers in 5th-8th grades from each of the county's three school districts competed in Saturday's spelling bee at the Jackson Heights High School gymnasium.
