

Kansas man injured in I-29 wreck

(KLZA)-- A Gardner, Kansas man suffered minor injuries in a Holt County, Missouri wreck early Sunday morning.

The Missouri Highway Patrol report says 18-year-old Nicholas Phillips was northbound on Interstate 29 about five miles east of Oregon, Missouri when his vehicle traveled off the west side of the road and stuck the emergency Median crossover.

The Kia Optima went airborne, through the median and entered the southbound lanes of the interstate, traveled off the west side of the southbound lanes and came to rest up an embankment.

Phillips was checked out at the scene of the wreck by the Atchison-Holt Ambulance Squad but was not hospitalized.

The vehicle was totaled.
