Falls City Council meets

(KLZA)-- The Falls City Council met Monday evening via video conference.

Three public hearings were conducted drawing no comments.

The Council voted to give favorable comment to a request from Casey's General Store for a Class D liquor license which allows the off-sale of beer, wine and distilled spirits.

A Corporate Manager Application for James Inglis for American Legion Post 102 was approved.

A request for a condition use permit for a child daycare center at 816 East 16th Street for Regina Kapustka was approved.

Also approved on the recommendation of the Planning Commission was a request to re-zone land owned by Gayle Swisegood on East 14th Street from R3, High Density Residential to C3 Highway Commercial.
