Nemaha Co Clerk's Office reopens to public

(KMZA)--The Nemaha County Clerk's Office is now open to the public.

The office was closed to the public last week after four out of five employees in the office tested positive for COVID-19.

The office re-opened Tuesday.

County Clerk Mary Kay Schulteans says advance voting in the office for the November 3rd general election will start Wednesday (October 21)

The office hours are 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Schulteans says they will also be open for advance voting in the office on Saturday morning, October 31st from 8:00 to 12 noon.

Those with questions can call the office at 785-336-2170.
