

Plea entered in Nemaha Co child sex case

(KMZA)--A Bern man facing multiple child sex related charges has entered into a plea agreement.

The Nemaha County Attorney's Office says 58-year-old Timothy Blocker pleaded no contest last week in Nemaha County District Court to charges of aggravated incest and aggravated indecent liberties with a child.

In exchange for the plea, charges of rape and sexual exploitation of a child were dismissed.

Sentencing was set for January 8.

Blocker was arrested November 4 on two Nemaha County warrant following an investigation by the Nemaha County Sheriff's Department.

In a second case, Blocker pleaded no contest last month to a charge of sexual battery and was sentenced to 12 months in the Nemaha County Jail.

Many Signals Communications