

Neb man arrested in Brown Co on drug charges

(KNZA)--A suspicious vehicle report in Brown County leads to the arrest of a Salem, Nebraska man on drug charges.

Brown County Sheriff John Merchant said the Sheriff's Office received a report the afternoon of September 9 about a suspicious motor home without a visible license plate that was parked in the roadway on the west side of Robinson.

Deputies located the vehicle and made contact with the driver, identified as 41-year-old Walter Cole.

Merchant said while deputies were speaking with Cole about the license plate issue, the Sheriff's Department K-9, Ari, alerted on the vehicle.

Upon completion of the search, Cole was arrested on charges of possession of methamphetamine, possession of drug paraphernalia, along with no registration and no proof of insurance.

Many Signals Communications