

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=72909>

COVID-19 case numbers on the increase in SE Nebraska and NW Missouri
(KLZA)-- The number of COVID-19 cases continue to climb in parts of the listening area.

Community Medical Center in Falls City reported 62 positive tests for COVID-19 between November 8 and 22nd. That represents 19.6 percent of the total tests given. There were 250 negative tests.

In Holt County, Missouri, an additional 21 cases of COVID-19 have been confirmed pushing the number of active cases in Holt County to 46.

The Atchison County, Missouri Health Department reported there are currently 35 active cases in the county. There have been 117 confirmed cases in Atchison County since November 1.

Many Signals Communications