(KAIR)--A Powerball ticket, sold in the local region, is worth $1 million.

That's according to the Kansas Lottery, which says, in a release, the ticket was sold in Northeast Kansas, which includes such local counties as Atchison, Doniphan, Brown, Jackson, Jefferson, Nemaha, Marshall, Leavenworth, and Pottawatomie.

According to a release from the Kansas Lottery, the Powerball ticket "matched all five numbers but not the Powerball to win $1."

The winning numbers in Wednesday's drawing were 12-21-22-30-33 Powerball 24.

Wednesday's drawing means the second millionaire of 2022, through Kansas Lottery wins, with the grand prize ticket for the Holiday Millionaire Raffle sold in South Central Kansas.
