

Atchison duo busted in financial card scheme

(KAIR)--Two Atchison residents are facing charges in connection with a burglary and theft that led to alleged financial-based crimes.

Arrested Sunday were 32-year-old Mary McDonald and 30-year-old Jacob Camp.

She was taken into custody on an Atchison County District Court warrant charging her with aggravated burglary and theft.

Camp was arrested on an Atchison County District Court warrant charging him with computer crime and criminal use of a financial card.

According to a release from Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson, McDonald is accused of the unlawful entry of a residence, located in the 400 block of Mound Street, that occurred in the early evening of August 24. She allegedly, while inside, took a financial card belonging to a 70-year-old victim.
