

Atchison Co election results certified

(KAIR)--The results of the 2022 General Election have been certified.

That follows last week- meeting of the Atchison County Commission, with the Commission convening as the Board of Canvassers to review the outcome of the November 8 election.

According to figures provided by Atchison County Clerk Michelle Phillips, 5,553 ballots were cast, representing a 48.71 percent turnout.

Atchison County has a total of 11,375 registered voters.

455 mail-out ballots were received of the 522 advanced ballots provided, including provisional ballots.

1,118 voters cast their ballots early at the County Clerk- office.

48 provisional ballots were reviewed by the Board of Canvassers, with 12 rejected.

Ultimately, following the review of the provisional ballots, it was determined that no affect was had on the outcome of Atchison County- key general election race for 1st District Atchison County Commissioner, with the certified results showing Republican Dr. Allen Reavis with 769 votes and Democrat Tom Lykins with 583 votes.

Many Signals Communications