

Jackson Co house fire battled Friday

(KAIR)--A vacant Jackson County home caught fire early Friday morning, leaving area crews responding to the scene.

According to Jackson County Sheriff Tim Morse, the fire began around 1:45 Friday morning, at 2348 270th Road, with the Solider and Holton Fire Departments, along with Jackson County EMS, responding to the blaze.

The Sheriff- Office, and the Kansas State Fire Marshal- Office, also responded to the scene of the fire.

According to Morse, “crews continued into daylight hours [Friday] extinguishing hot spots.”

It- believed the home had been vacant in recent months prior to the fire.

The Sheriff- Office, and Kansas State Fire Marshal- Office, are investigating.

Anyone with information related to the fire is urged to contact the Jackson County Sheriff- Office at 785-364-2251.

Many Signals Communications