Hearing set for Falls City woman in Reserve burglary case

(KNZA)--A February 8 preliminary hearing is set for a Falls City woman accused of breaking into the Sac and Fox Trading Post in Reserve multiple times.

22-year-old Jasmine Defore is charged in Brown County District Court with three felony counts of burglary and three misdemeanor counts of theft.

She was charged last October following an investigation by Sac and Fox Tribal Police.

According to court documents, stolen in the break-ins were a total of $1,800 cash and two packages of cigarettes.

Defore remains free on an OR bond.
