

Former Auburn Mayor remembered

(KLZA)-- A former Auburn Mayor, City Council member and businesswoman is being remembered.

Barbara “Annie” Thomas died Monday at the age of 91.

Annie Thomas was a long-time wholesale distributor of Miller beer in Southeast Nebraska and served two terms as a member of the Auburn City Council and two terms as Mayor of Auburn.

In addition, she was actively involved in the Auburn Chamber Ambassadors and Auburn Senior Center.

Funeral services for Annie Thomas of Auburn will be Monday morning, February, 20, at 10 at the Auburn Christian Church.

Annie Thomas is survived by sons Dennis, Doug and Dave, and a daughter Leslie Thomas - Bratsovsky.
