

Falls City School Board approves personnel changes

(KLZA)-- The Falls City Board of Education accepted the retirement resignation of Christine Ramsey, the special education teacher for grades 3 - 5 when they met Monday evening. Ramsey has taught in District 56 for 28 years.

Certified faculty employment contracts were approved for Jessica Hansen to teach High School mathematics; Allison Johnson to be the Industrial Technology / Agriculture Teacher; Taylor Kearney as an elementary teacher; and Jamie Vonderschmidt was hired as a Elementary Special Education Teacher.

The Board also approved increasing the prices for breakfast and lunches by a quarter for the 2023-24 school year.

The 2023-24 Student Handbook updates were approved the Board decided to make no changes to the admission prices for events in the Falls City School District for the next school year.

Many Signals Communications