Vacancy filled on Seneca City Council

(KMZA)--A vacancy has been filled on the Seneca City Council.

The Council voted unanimously Wednesday evening to appoint Kris Enneking to fill the unexpired term of former 2nd Ward Councilwoman Alice Lackey, who resigned effective September 21st.

The term will expire in 2025.

Enneking was among three individuals to express an interest in filling the open council position. Also seeking the position were Clete Kramer and Bethany Ohlsen.

Enneking will be sworn-in and take his seat on the Council at their October 18th meeting.
