

Peru State Giving Day coming up

(KLZA)-- Peru State College is making preparations for its annual Giving Day, a new tradition that highlights the profound importance of philanthropy in education.

The Peru State College Giving Day is October 24 - 25, a 24-hour time period from noon on the 24th until noon October 25. The event is sponsored by the Peru State College Foundation. '

Giving Day is the day for students, alumni, faculty, staff and friends of Peru State College come together to make an impact by making a financial contribution, volunteering time or sharing the news of the campaign on social media.

Giving Day plays a pivotal role in providing financial assistance to students. Scholarships, grants, and support for extracurricular program are just some of the ways in which donors make a difference.

Giving Day also brings the college community closer together, fostering a sense of unity and shared purpose among student, faculty, staff and alumni.

For more information and how you can get involved, visit Peru State College's Giving Day website at www.peru.edu/giveblue.

Many Signals Communications