

Arrest follows Wednesday morning Atchison crimes

(KAIR)--Six vehicle burglaries, involving theft, were investigated early Wednesday morning in Atchison with a 25-year-old Atchison man now in custody.

According to a release from Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson, Kyler Reynolds is accused not only of the latest cases, but also for one occurring earlier this month and another early last month.

Items taken during the burglary of the vehicles include purses, cash, financial cards, and duffel bags.

Wilson, in the release, says officers were investigating the Wednesday morning cases, and following leads, when Reynolds was spotted riding a bicycle in the area of 4th Street and U.S. Highway 59. According to Wilson, Reynolds allegedly tried to flee, but was apprehended near 2nd and Main Streets.

Reynolds, who faces charges for burglary and theft, was also arrested Wednesday morning on an Atchison County District Court warrant for failure to appear in court in connection with previous burglary and theft cases.

Following his arrest, Reynolds was booked into the Atchison County Jail.

The investigation is continuing.

According to Wilson, Reynolds' alleged Wednesday morning crimes, committed between 4:30 and 5:30, happened in the 1600 block of South 6th Street, the 600 block of Spring Garden, the 1200, 1400, and 1500 blocks of South 7th Street, as well as the 1200 block of Riverview Drive. Additionally, it's alleged he played a role in the burglary and theft of vehicles in the 700 block of South 8th Street on September 8 and the 600 block of North 3rd Street on October 6.
