

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=76528>

Semi driver injured in Jackson Co wreck

(KNZA)--An Evansville, Indiana semi-truck driver was injured Monday afternoon in a single-vehicle Jackson County wreck.

The Kansas Highway Patrol says it happened on U.S. 75 Highway, five-tenths of a mile north of the K-9 junction, around 2:45.

The Patrol reports 65-year-old John Sjuggerud was southbound when his semi went left of center and off the roadway into the east ditch where it rolled onto its driver's side.

Sjuggerud was transported to the Holton Community Hospital for the treatment of suspected minor injuries.

The Patrol says he was wearing a seatbelt when the wreck occurred.

Many Signals Communications