(MSC News)--Voters Tuesday determined who should fill city and school board positions, while some decided special questions.

In Atchison County*, among contested races was that for the school board of USD 377, with one of the three positions up for grabs contested.

Earning the favor of voters was Position #3 incumbent Wade Madden, who earned 395 votes against challenger Carl Bosch, who received 68.

Incumbents were also victorious in the race for the school board of Atchison's USD 409, with the challenger seeking one of the three open seats defeated at the polls.

According to the unofficial results of yesterday's election, Sally Berger, Stefanie Gardner, and Brandi Ross were all elected to serve another term on the School Board, with Berger earning 552 votes, Ross with 485, and Gardner with 468. Challenger Doug Tschauder earned the support of 365 City of Atchison voters in his attempt to fill one of the three open seats.

In Brown County*, Mitchell Brown was elected to position 2 on the Hiawatha USD 415 Board of Education, defeating challenger Richard Schilling by a vote of 353 to 208.

There were two contested races for the Horton City Commission. Bruce Hodges won a three-way race for Commissioner of Police, while Joshua White was elected as Commissioner of Parks and Recreation.

The Brown County Clerk's Office reported an 18 percent voter turnout.

In Doniphan County*, William Noll, Carl Tharman and Mark Rounds were elected to the Highland Community College Board of Trustees.
