

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=76681>

Rulo man dies from injuries in ag accident

(KLZA)-- A Rulo man died from injuries suffered while working on a large piece of agricultural equipment Tuesday morning.

71-year-old Neal Frost was working on a fertilizer floater that was jacked up with the rear wheels removed when the machine fell, making contact with him.

Neal Frost farmed and was a sub-contractor through Ag Partners Coop. He was a member of the Ag Partners Board and has served on the Richardson County Extension Board and the Natural Resources District.

Funeral services for Neal Frost will be 10:30 Monday morning, Nov. 27 at the First United Methodist Church in Falls City.

The family will receive friends Sunday afternoon from 3 - 4 at the Dorr and Clark Funeral Home in Falls City.

Many Signals Communications