

Inmate dies at Lansing Correctional Facility

(KAIR)--An inmate at the Lansing Correctional Facility has died.

The Kansas Department of Corrections, in a release, said 29-year-old Darionce Charles-Lott died Saturday night at the facility.

The release says Charles-Lott was found unresponsive in his cell with no pulse. Life-saving measures were administered. He was transported to the facility clinic where he later died.

The cause of death is pending further investigation and the results of an independent autopsy.

Per protocol, when a resident dies in the custody of the Kansas Department of Corrections (KDOC), the death is under investigation by the KDOC and the Kansas Bureau of Investigation. The investigation is currently ongoing.

Charles-Lott, was serving a 172-month sentence from Wyandotte County for one count of Aggravated Battery with Intent for Bodily Harm and was admitted to the facility on November 1, 2011.

Many Signals Communications