

Thursday Atchison crash injures one

(KAIR)--A passenger, in one of two vehicles involved in a Thursday afternoon Atchison crash, required hospital transport.

According to a release from Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson, the wreck happened around 2:00, in the 1300 block of U.S. Highway 59. It was at that location, Wilson says, that the two vehicles, one driven by William Tirrell and the other driven by Micah Dillinger, both of Atchison, were involved in the crash.

A 73-year-old passenger in Dillinger's vehicle was transported for examination at Amberwell Atchison by Atchison County EMS. The passenger's name is not immediately made public.
