

Wanted KS felon arrested in Pawnee City, Neb

(KMZA)--A wanted Kansas felon is behind bars after being arrested in Pawnee City, Nebraska.

According to a release from the Pawnee County Sheriff's Office, the Sheriff's Office, with the assistance of the US Marshall's Service and the Nebraska State Patrol, apprehended Corey Bloom, of Junction City, Kansas, during the early morning hours of December 5th.

Bloom had 5 active felony warrants from the Junction City area. The warrants were for drug-related crimes---including 3 counts of methamphetamine possession with intent to distribute and 3 counts of possession of methamphetamine paraphernalia.

Bloom is known to be an armed and dangerous individual because of prior violent crimes and the use of a firearm during the commission of previous crimes.

The Sheriff's Office says Bloom was brought into the Pawnee City community by friends who sheltered him, knowing he was a wanted felon.

The Sheriff's Office thanked their law enforcement partners for assuring that the arrest of Bloom went safely and those in the community who assisted with the investigation.
