

Arrest made in December firearms burglary

(KAIR)--A Topeka woman, arrested in Jackson County Monday, "is believed to be involved in a burglary that took place on December 5th, near the Jackson, Jefferson and Atchison County lines."

That's according to a release from Jackson County Sheriff Tim Morse, which says 44-year-old Alyyshia Schwanz "allegedly stole a number of firearms from the residence" that was targeted for the burglary.

Schwanz was arrested by Sheriff's Deputies Monday on charges of burglary with the intent to steal firearms, criminal distribution of firearms to a felon, and criminal damage to property.

Following her arrest, Schwanz was booked into the Jackson County Jail.
