

Atchison wreck leaves one hurt, one cited

(KAIR)--A Wednesday afternoon Atchison crash sent one driver to the hospital, while the other was cited for the wreck.

According to a release from Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson, it happened at U.S. Highway 73 and Raven Hill Road, when a Ford Escape, driven by 64-year-old Leavenworth resident Elisabeth Vincent, had been westbound on Raven Hill Road when she collided with a Volkswagen Jetta, which had been northbound on the highway.

The driver of the Jetta, 27-year-old Elizabeth Johnson, of Overland Park, was transported by private vehicle for examination. Vincent was cited for failure to yield at the intersection.

The wreck happened around 1:20 Wednesday afternoon.
