

One injured in Nemaha Co wreck

(KMZA)--A Friday evening two-vehicle weather-related wreck in Nemaha County sent one person to the hospital.

The Nemaha County Sheriff's Office said 59-year-old Terry Heidemann, of Corning was southbound on K-63 Highway, north of 144th Road, when he lost control of his Ford Ranger on the snow-packed road, causing him to strike a northbound Dodge Journey driven by 60-year-old Theresa Steinlage, of Kelly.

Steinlage was taken by private vehicle to the Nemaha Valley Community Hospital in Seneca for the treatment of unspecified injuries.

Heidemann was not hurt.

The wreck was reported around 7:15 Friday evening.

Many Signals Communications