

Three arrested in Horton drug bust

(KNZA)--Three Horton residents are facing drug charges following the execution of a search warrant Sunday night at a Horton residence.

That's according to a release from Brown County Sheriff John Merchant, who says his office's Drug Task Force was joined by the Horton Police Department in the search, which happened around 10:10 Sunday night, at the 137 W. 11th Street residence.

Arrested following the search were 42-year-old Jamie Long and 32-year-old Skyler Pahmahmie, who both face charges for possession of methamphetamine, possession of marijuana, and possession of drug paraphernalia.

The third person, 53-year-old Tisha Thomas, faces charges for possession of methamphetamine and possession of drug paraphernalia.

Once in custody, the three were booked into the Brown County Jail.
