

Failure to stop, Georgia warrants, hold Atchison man

(KAIR)--A 32-year-old Atchison man is facing local charges for fleeing from police, but is also jailed on out-of-state felony warrants for robbery and burglary.

Aaron Bentley III was arrested Thursday, in Atchison, for fleeing and attempting to elude, driving while suspended, no insurance, and expired tag.

According to a release from Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson, it's alleged that Bentley failed to stop for an officer, around 8:45 Thursday morning, in the 1000 block of South 5th Street. Instead, it's alleged that Bentley fled behind the wheel of his car, driving north on 5th Street, until "the car proceeded to an apartment complex in the 200 block North 3rd where...Bentley was taken into custody."

Wilson says that after Bentley's arrest, it was determined that he "was wanted on outstanding warrants in Clayton County and Henry County, Georgia charging him with robbery and burglary."

Once in custody, Bentley was booked into the Atchison County Jail.

Many Signals Communications