

Johnson-Brock School not able to accept all option-in requests

(KLZA)-- Johnson-Brock Superintendent Jeff Koehler reported to the Board of Education Monday night that he continues to receive calls from families that want to option enroll their children in the Johnson-Brock School.

Koehler noted that he has had to turn quite a few down due to full classes.

The Superintendent also updated the Board on progress on the new addition. Crews have begun bricking the exterior of the new addition. He also noted that discussions have been held regarding the weight room and what could be cut from the AHRS bid to save some money on the project.

Summer projects were also discussed.

A teaching contract for the 2024-25 school year with Kari Lottman was approved and the Board approved recognizing that this years Johnson-Brock seniors have met all requirements to receive their diplomas.

Principal Lucas Dalinghaus reported that the Spring open house will be May 6th and that the Activities Banquet is scheduled for May 9th.

Many Signals Communications