Holton Commission To Hold Special Meeting Tonight

Holton City Commissioners this evening will hold a special meeting, focused on two issues tabled during their regular meeting earlier this month, including proposed employee raises, and insurance(Play Audio 11 secs)

That's City Manager Bret Bauer, who says the insurance issue, which includes the possibility of adding dental to the city plan, stems from substantial savings found over the past year(Play Audio 9 secs)

Both matters will be addressed this evening, including the two employee wage increases of 3 percent, with one for cost of living, while the other is merit based.

The session, at Holton City Hall, begins at 6:00.
