

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=8549>

Registration Deadline For Ks GOP Caucus Coming Up

The Kansas Republican Presidential Caucus will be held March 10th.

Any Kansas resident registered as a Republican by February 17th may vote in the Caucus.

The Kansas Caucus is the first statewide caucus or primary after Super Tuesday, March 6th.

Mitt Romney, Newt Gingrich, Rick Santorum and Ron Paul have filed for the Kansas Caucus along with a number of candidates that have suspended their campaigns.

To file, a candidate must have signed a declaration of intent by December 31st of last year and paid a 10-thousand dollar filing fee.

The Kansas Caucus will be held throughout 104 counties on March 10th, starting at 10 a.m.

The Brown County GOP Caucus will take place at the Fisher Community Center in Hiawatha and the Nemaha County GOP Caucus will be held at the Nemaha County Community Building in Seneca.