Craig Man Faces Drug Charges

A Craig, Missouri, man faces charges in an indictment announced Friday by the U.S. Attorney's Office in Omaha.

Forty-four year-old Glen Nowling is charged with conspiring to distribute and possession with intent to distribute 500 grams or more of a substance containing a detectable amount of methamphetamine.

According to the indictment, Nowling was engaged in the illegal activity from February 2009 until this past January.

Glen Nowling faces a maximum sentence of life in prison and up to a $10 million fine if he's convicted of the charges.
