Atchison Juveniles Nabbed for Car Burglaries

Two juveniles have been released to their parents after being arrested for a rash of car burglaries in various locations in Atchison last month.

Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson describes the burglaries.

In a separate case, police are looking for information into a burglary and theft that occurred Thursday night at the Main Street Decorating Center in the 1900 block of Main Street.

Wilson says the thieves forced entry and took rolls of coins.

No significant damage occurred to the building.
