Rollover Sends Robinson Man to the Hospital

A Robinson man suffers injuries in a Tuesday morning rollover crash while behind the wheel of a semi, with a crane mounted to the tractor-trailer, while traveling on a Brown County Road.

County Sheriff's Investigator Randy Linck says it happened around 8:30 when Andrew Vernon was northbound on Goldfinch road.

Vernon was transported from the scene to Hiawatha Community Hospital for treatment of his injuries.

He was released from hospitalized care later in the day.

Vernon was traveling alone.

The exact cause of the rollover was not immediately available.

The semi is owned by Babcock Sales and Service of Hiawatha.
