David was born October 29, 1941, in Atchison, Kansas, the sixth child of Charles F. "Bud" Tull and Esther S. (Henderson) Tull. He graduated from Atchison High School.

David married Margaret Mary "Peg" Young and they are the parents of one daughter, Sara Tull. They all lived together in the home that David built.

He was employed as a laborer for Burlington Northern Railroad and also helped with the family farm all of his working years until his retirement. He loved his cows and enjoyed raising hogs and chickens, going to livestock sales, and eating at McDonalds-he ate there for breakfast every day.

Survivors include his wife, Peg, and daughter, Sara (Justin Rasdall); grandson, Mason James Rasdall; brothers, John J. (Sherri) Tull, Ronald W. (Suzanne) Tull; sisters, Anita Lively and Martha Franzel; sister-in-law, Lisa Tull; and numerous nieces and nephews.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Bud and Esther, brothers, Charles R. Tull, James E. Tull, Forest L. Tull, Richard W. Tull, and a sister, Reva Tull Boger.
