

Pawnee City , NE

Roy Nider was born on September 21, 1936 in Waterville, Kansas to Vernon Lawrence and Emma (Henrich) Nider. Roy spent his childhood in Blue Rapids, Kansas where he was one of seven children and graduated from Blue Rapids High School in 1955. He married his high school sweetheart, Linda (Noland) Nider on July 28, 1956. Roy then worked multiple jobs including owning gas stations in Manhattan and Clay Center, Kansas and working as an engineer for the Kansas Department of Transportation until 1972.

Roy and Linda then moved to Axtell, Kansas where they purchased their first grocery store. Together Roy and Linda then owned and operated several retail businesses throughout their marriage, including grocery stores in Tecumseh and Pawnee City, NE and Clay Center, Axtell, Onaga and Herington, KS. Roy's passion in life was spending time with his family and golfing excessively. He loved golf, as all of his family and friends know, especially with his children and grandchildren. Roy also loved traveling to Reno, Nevada where he played in many pro-am golf tournaments.

Pops was a generational man who lit up every room he walked into. The respect he had for his friends, family, and community was incredible. He was an amazing man that left an impact everywhere he went. Roy was one of the good ones.
