

Corning , KS

Clyde C. Eisenbarth, 83, of Corning, died on Thursday, March 16, 2023, at Life Care Center of Seneca.

Clyde was born on January 4, 1940, the only child of Cyril and Thelma Thoren Eisenbarth. He grew up in the Corning community and attended Rose Hill Country School. He attended Corning High School and graduated with the Class of 1958. After graduation he continued to help his father on the family farm and worked on the construction of the Corning Elevator.

He married Dorothy Lichter on September 4, 1959, at St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church in Onaga. The couple spent the first two years of their marriage in Corning before moving to the family farm south of Corning in 1965.

Clyde worked for Nemaha County on the Road and Bridge Department for a few years, before being employed from 1977-1979 to help with the construction of Jefferies Energy Center near St. Mary- Kansas. From 1965-1985, he operated a dairy farm with his wife and family prior to changing over to beef. Clyde also was employed by CR Industries in Seneca, until his retirement.

Clyde enjoyed hunting, the outdoors and being on his farm. He also enjoyed visiting with neighbors. He took great pleasure in going to his grandchildren- sporting events and talking about the history of Corning.

Clyde was a member of St. Patrick- Church in Corning and a long-term member of the Red Vermillion Township board.

Clyde was preceded in death by his wife, Dorothy on September 1, 2012; and a son, Eric on July 28, 1997.

He is survived by his four sons, John Eisenbarth and Tim (Sarah) Eisenbarth, both of Soldier, Randy (Jeanne) Eisenbarth of Hutchinson, and Jesse (Jeanette) Eisenbarth of Onaga; a daughter, Annette (Gary) Schreiber of Soldier; 12 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

A rosary will be prayed at 2 P.M. on Sunday, March 19, 2023, at the Lauer Funeral Home in Seneca. Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at 10:30 AM Monday, March 20th, at St. Patrick- Catholic Church in Corning. Burial will follow in the church cemetery.

Memorials may be given in Clyde- name to St. Patrick- Catholic Church.
