After marrying, Karen and Jim moved to Little Rock AFB in the Arkansas where Jim was stationed. While at Little Rock they welcomed two children, Justina Joy in 1964 and James Kevin in 1965.

While in the Air Force Karen and Jim traveled to many different bases. They made many life long friendships over the years. In 1981, Jim retired and they moved back to her family farm in Centralia. While the kids were at home, she was a stay home mom and a house wife. Karen had various jobs after the kids were grown. She helped family friends on their farms. She worked at the Centralia Café, Centralia Animal Clinic, Eastridge Nursing Home and Centralia Home Health. She was a hospice worker, and also worked for Little- accounting.
